

READS DHH PROGRAM

Job Title	Educational Interpreter
Program	READS Deaf & Hard of Hearing Program
Communication skills	English/ASL
Salary	Based on Experience & Education
Benefits	Yes
Certifications	EIPA
Job Description	Educational Interpreter working within an educational collaborative program in southeastern MA. The program is located within the public school setting and has a full range of educational programming for DHH students. The interpreter is responsible for interpretation of educational curriculum within the regular education/mainstream classrooms, interpreting for school events & activities, interpreting for staff within site based interaction with host school staff.
Required skills	Completion of an Interpreter Training Program or the equivalent, as determined by the director, have already achieved or working towards the recommended EIPA credentials being proposed by MA DESE. Strong written & verbal communication skills, ASL Fluency, Coordination with team members (administrative director, interpreters, support staff, SLP, OT, PT).Familiarity with scheduling within public school settings.
Job Closing Date	Until Filled
Additional	READS Collaborative does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, disability, religion or sexual orientation.