

READS DHH PROGRAM

Job Title	Teacher of the Deaf
Program	READS Deaf & Hard of Hearing Program
Communication skills	English/ASL
Salary	Based on Experience & Education
Benefits	Medical, Dental, MTA retirement
Certifications	MA DESE licensure
Job Description	MA in Deaf Education preferred; Classroom teacher within an educational collaborative program in southeastern MA. The program is located within the public school setting and has a full range of educational programming for DHH students. The teacher is responsible for direct instruction within the DHH classroom and supervision of students within the regular education classrooms.
Required skills	MA in Deaf Education preferred; strong written & verbal communication skills, including the ability to communicate in ASL with students & colleagues or willingness to develop ASL skills to level of proficiency, Knowledge of Visual Phonics, Knowledge of MA curriculum frameworks and MCAS procedures, coordination with team members (administrative director, interpreters, support staff, SLP, OT,PT) , Supervision of support staff assigned to the classroom, Competency with special education documentation (IEP, progress notes, evaluations, lesson plans).
Job Closing Date	Until Filled
Additional	READS Collaborative does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, disability, religion or sexual orientation.